

Seeing Changes as a Family

Tina: After Andrew started seeking treatment, it was 180 degrees.

Dennis: His whole personality has changed since he began receiving help from the VA.

Drew: That opened up all kinds of doors for me. And it's allowed me to be more open and honest with people.

Catrina: My family, they understand, they don't push. They don't love me any less or treat me any different.

Julian: We ended up discovering that we both needed to go to counseling. So we gave it an honest effort, man, and I think now we're stronger than ever.

Ashley: Slowly I just started to see a change in him. I think especially after our daughter, he was like, "I just want to be a dad."

Tony: I'm more open to new experiences. I'm more trusting of people.

Kacie: It was just this different side of him that was so relaxed and more open to everything, that I hadn't seen before.
